Trinity Lutheran School
Statement of Faith

As a school owned and operated by Trinity Lutheran Church, a member congregation of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, we hold the unanimous position of the universal Christian Church that:

- 1) the Bible (Old & New Testaments) are the inspired, infallible, and inerrant word of God.
- 2) God's word was written to make us wise unto salvation by teaching us to know him as the one, true God.
- 3) the one true God is three Persons in one Essence, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (the Holy Trinity), co-equal, co-eternal, etc.
- 4) the Son of God was made true man in time, lived a holy and righteous life under God's law in our place, gave his life into death on the cross to atone for the sins of all people, rose again the third day, ascended to the right hand of the Father, sent his Holy Spirit to work faith in our hearts through the word of God and to enlighten those who believe, and that he will come again to judge all people on the last day.
- 5) that all people are conceived and born sinful and under the curse of God's righteous judgment, without true fear, love, or trust toward God, and in need of divine mercy.
- 6) that without the Holy Spirit working through the word no one can come to faith.
- 7) that, through the truth of the gospel which Jesus commanded to be preached in his name, and by the sacraments (Baptism and the Lord's Supper), which Jesus instituted for his Church on earth, God works faith in Christ in all who believe,
- 8) and in this way he creates his Church and cares for all Christians whom he continually comforts and strengthens through the gospel.
- 9) The gospel is the good news of salvation for all people since Jesus suffered and died for all people.
- 10) The Bible is the sole rule and norm of all that we believe, because it is the sole rule and norm of all that God teaches.
- 11) Through the law, God shows us our sin, convicts us, and leads us to repentance.
- 12) Through the gospel, God shows us our Savior, converts us, and keeps us in the faith.
- 13) Jesus, who is fully God and fully Man, commands us to hear his word often, to grow thereby in faith and confidence in his grace, and to willingly live a holy life both to his glory and to the service of our neighbor according to the 10 Commandments, all in the confidence of his forgiveness and in hope of the promise of the resurrection of the dead and the eternal life of the world to come.
- 14) God still makes us either male and female and restricts all sexual activity to marriage where he desires to bless husband and wife with children.
- 15) The duty of raising children in the faith and in all useful and honorable arts and knowledge belongs primarily to the parents who are responsible for teaching them (and finding, evaluating, and supporting those who teach for them). Those who assist in this responsibility perform a loving service and are both answerable to God and worthy of honor.

Trinity Lutheran School seeks to maintain a safe, Christ-centered, theological rich, and academically advanced culture within our school. Please review the Mission and Vision Statement and the questions below for the Interview with the Pastor and Curriculum and Instruction Coach.

Mission Statement: Our mission is to partner with parents to raise up virtuous Christian men and women who learn the Christian faith and how to confess the saving gospel with conviction and clarity. By teaching students to love learning, and to read, think, and articulate well, we prepare and guide them to use their talents to serve both God and neighbor.

Vision Statement: Trinity Lutheran School through the grammar, logic, and rhetoric stages will use sound Biblical, Lutheran Theology, Literature and Writings that have stood the test of time, lessons in critical thinking and argumentation, the study of cause and effect through different eras of History, and a well-rounded Mathematics and Science program to create men and women who can use their God-given talents to serve God and their neighbor.

Question 1: Do you agree with the Mission and Vision of Trinity Lutheran School? Why or Why not?

Question 2: How would you define Classical Education? Why do you want a Classical Education for your child?

Question 3: How does education help a person serve God and their neighbor?

Question 4: What other information do we need to know about your child and your family?
